THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

Kellar, the world famous magician, will appear at the Grand to-night, offering a program of mystery and mirth. Kellar delighted thousands at Louisville last week at Macanley's, and at the Grand, in Cincinnati, for a week in December. The Louisville Post says:

"Kellar, the magician, began a week's engagement at Macanley's Theater yesterday. Kellar's program for this season is one of the most elaborate that he has ever had. In palmistry and general sleight-of-hand work he is an acknowledged master. The flower tricks and the card juggling are old with magicians, but never fail to delight an audience.

"One of his new illusions is called 'The Levitation of Princess Kornac.' A woman is hypnotized and placed upon a couch. Then with a few passes with his magic wand she is raised in midair and there remains suspended.

"The Cassadago Propaganda, or spiritualistic puzzle, is very interesting, and the Hindoo clock provokes much merriment.

The projection of astral bodies through the air is a most mystifying illusion, and is accomplished in a very clever manner."

The Times says: "Prof. Kellar's illusions are marvellous. They excel in mysterious effect anything of the kind ever seen in Louisville. The program contains a variety of features, each apparently more wonderful than the last, and the whole entertainment is one that appeals so forcibly to lovers of the weird and mystic they can not afford to miss it. Undoubtedly Kellar vindicates his claim to supremacy in his field."

The New York World, Thrice-a-Week Edition.

Almost a Daily—At the Price of a Weekly.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week edition of The New York World, and with the Presidential campaign now at hand you can not do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism.

It is issued every other day, and is to all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" season 24 pages each week.

The price is only $1.00 per year. It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand a lone and furnish such service.

The Thrice-a-Week World has at its disposal all of the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed—The New York World.

Its political news is absolutely impartial. This fact will be of especial value in the Presidential campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns.

These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all.

We offer this unequalled paper and The Bourbon News together one year for $2.50.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $4.

OLIVES, Olive Oil, Chow Chow, Salad Dressing, L. Saloshin & Co.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my health and life. It cured me of lung trouble following a gripe." Thousands owe their lives to the prompt action of this never failing remedy. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. W. T. Brooks.

Vandeen & Co.

The Old Man's Retort. "You don't have any ruins in this blawsted country," said the British colon to his future father-in-law. "No," said the old man. "We don't. And you won't have any left in England if your noble army of titled paupers can marry enough rich Yankee girls to put new roofs on your old castles."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
